

A Passion for Flight — New Zealand Aviation before the Great War: Vol 3 — The Joe Hammond Story and Military Beginnings 1910-1914. E W Martyn. Volplane Press, PO Box 6482, Upper Riccarton, Christchurch 8442, New Zealand (E eomartyn@xtra.co.nz). 2013. 208pp. Illustrated. £44.90 (NZ) plus postage/packing. ISBN 978-0-473-26426-6. The final volume of this detailed study of the pioneering years of New Zealand aviation focuses on the contributions of Joseph Joel Hammond (1886-1918) the first British colonial to be awarded an Aviator’s Certificate, Allen Roberts, the 50th Group ‘That Old Britannia’ presented by the International Correspondence School (ICS) and the growing development of military aviation.

Aerodynamics

AIR TRANSPORT

HISTORICAL

A Passion for Flight — New Zealand Aviation before the Great War: Vol 3 — The Joe Hammond Story and Military Beginnings 1910-1914. E W Martyn. Volplane Press, PO Box 6482, Upper Riccarton, Christchurch 8442, New Zealand (E eomartyn@xtra.co.nz). 2013. 208pp. Illustrated. £44.90 (NZ) plus postage/packing. ISBN 978-0-473-26426-6. The final volume of this detailed study of the pioneering years of New Zealand aviation focuses on the contributions of Joseph Joel Hammond (1886-1918) the first British colonial to be awarded an Aviator’s Certificate, Allen Roberts, the 50th Group ‘That Old Britannia’ presented by the International Correspondence School (ICS) and the growing development of military aviation.

SERVICE AVIATION

Illustrated throughout with numerous contemporary photographs and artists’ colour markings diagrams, this volume records operational histories of the Heinkel He 112, the WM-20, Avia B-534, PZL P11a, Reggiane Re2000 Heja, Messerschmitt Bf109/Bf110/Mk2010a C and the Focke-Wulf FW190 in Hungary.

SPACE

A general introduction to space launch vehicles, technology and how the future development of spaceplanes could encourage space tourism and potential space colonies.

STRUCTURES AND MATERIALS

TRAINING

SYMPOSIA

For further information contact the National Aerospace Library. T +44 (0)1262 701038 or 701060 E hublibrary@aerosociety.com