
HISTORICAL

PROPUSSION

A pictorial history of the key women employees of Pratt & Whitney have made over the decades to the success and development of the company, concluding with concise biographical profiles of the company's current and recent eminent women managers and engineers.

SERVICE AVIATION

A concise biography of H G Bryan and his pioneering research undertaken with William Ellis Williams into aerodynamic stability which culminated in the publication of his classic book Stability in Aviation (Macmillan and Co, Limited, 1911) and of his relations with W F Lancaster.

SPACE

Illustrated throughout with numerous photographs and other diagrams, a detailed description of the engineering design of the pioneering American space capsule (including its structure and electrical/environmental control/attitude control/ communications/rocket/ astronaut systems), concluding with a chronological summary of its missions and the launch vehicles used.